Knowledgeable Collierville DUI Lawyer

Providing fierce defense when you need it most

Few things are as reprehensible as driving under the influence. Society in general and state law enforcement agencies in particular have made a concerted effort to crack down on drunk driving.

Yet even people who are ordinarily responsible can find themselves charged with a DUI offense. Bill Hagan, a knowledgeable DUI lawyer in Collierville, stands ready and able to provide a fierce criminal defense should you ever find yourself in a DUI situation.

Digging deep to get at the truth

Not all DUI charges are the same. It is true that most states consider a blood alcohol level of 0.08 to be above the legal limit, but that is not necessarily a reliable indicator. Sometimes ordinary, seemingly harmless substances - such as pain killers, cold medicine and even mouthwash - can raise a person's blood alcohol content. There may also be issues with the device used to measure your blood alcohol content, or the person performing the test may not have been properly trained.

Tenacious Collierville criminal lawyer Bill Hagan questions every detail of a DUI charge in order to identify what really happened. Then, he carefully and diligently prepares a tough, uncompromising defense on your behalf.

Without a doubt, the consequences of a DUI charge can be severe. You should never face them alone. Collierville DUI lawyer Bill Hagan determines the best DUI defense to help you avoid the serious consequences of a DUI, which can include:

Jail time	Community service
Fines	Loss of your driver's license
