Readers rejoice!

"Outstanding"

"For consistently outstanding writing and a thought-provoking mix of articles, few magazines do better than Harper's."

— Diego Ribadeneira, Boston Globe

"Timely"

"I bought Harper's at a newsstand in Los Angeles and indeed referred to the Shakespeare essays in a talk I gave in New York. Congratulations on a good and timely contribution..."

— Tom Stoppard, Screenwriter, Shakespeare in Love

"Unpredictable"

"Harper's Readings section is, month after month, the most interesting and unpredictable front-of-the-book section in American magazines. The Index is perhaps the most copied magazine feature of the last quarter century."

— The Washington Post

"Fascinating"

"Every month Harper's comes out with offbeat and fascinating facts."

— Charles Gibson, former anchor,
ABC's World News Tonight

"Legendary"

"Harper's is a legendarily wonderful publication."

— Advertising Age

Read tomorrow's headlines...today

Since 1850, Harper's has reported on the significant, culturally relevant topics of our time...months, and sometimes years, before most other magazines and news outlets.

Harpers.org makes it even easier, faster, and simpler to stay ahead of the news. In recent issues, Harper's would have alerted you to:

- ☑ the worldwide shortage of fresh drinking water two years before The New Yorker.
- ☑ the obesity epidemic in America four months before Newsweek.
- ☑ the swindlers and con men prowling Wall Street four years before The Economist.
- ☑ China's radical shift to capitalism two years before The Wall Street Journal.
- ☑ the proliferation of low-wage factory sweatshops four months before The New York Times.
- ☑ how ISIS seized power five months before The Atlantic.
- ☑ the new elites pulling away from America eight months before Newsweek.
- ☑ the tyranny of breast-feeding three years before the New York Times Sunday Review.

...and many more.

Join other influential thinkers, leaders, and sophisticated readers who use Harper's and Harpers.org to get advance notice on the people, issues, and developments shaping our age.
